

In the wake of U.S. President Barack Obama's announcement that the U.S. government would develop a National Action Plan (NAP), the International Corporate Accountability Roundtable and a number of other leading civil society organizations released public statements, expressing their support for the announcement and outlining key recommendations for the NAP's process and content. Faculty from IHRP is among the civil society contributors who will continue to consult throughout the US-NAP drafting process.

For further information and list of supporting CSOs: <http://nationalactionplan.us/other-recommendations/>

For recommendations from IHRP Faculty Matthew Mullen, PhD: <http://nationalactionplan.us/wp-content/uploads/2014/11/Recommendations-for-the-NAP-Mullen.pdf>