

Research Project Name:

Corporate Compliance

IHRP Staff and/or Students involved:

Matt Mullen, PhD, IHRP Lecturer and collaboration with faculty/students to be determined

Theme, Rationale, and Objectives of the Research:

This initiative falls under the Mahidol Talent Management Fund. This is a multi-year initiative for which the

Target Audience:

Advocates and practitioners working in the HR and business interface.

Short Description of the Research Process:

Thus far, the research has been desk based. Forthcoming initiatives will likely involve primary research.

Results of the Research:

- If the research is on-going, then are there any kinds of support needed from the students or public?

Period of Time:

2 years

Supporters/Partners and/or Affiliates:

-

Publications:

Mullen, Matthew. 2013. "Paradigms in Review: From Human Rights to Business Justice: The Need to Move Structural and

Mullen, Matthew. 2013. "Locating Substance in Human Rights Policies." International Conference on Business