Seminar on Human Rights and Democratisation in the Asia Pacific

Human Rights and Democratisation Research Seminar 2019 co-organized by Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Gadjah Mada and Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies, Mahidol University welcomes article submissions in accordance with the following guidelines:

1. Articles shall be part of the research thesis and have never been published or accepted for other publications, or are being considered for publication elsewhere. In addition to the manuscript, a written statement should be attached which clarifies that the article is original and does not contain any elements of plagiarism.
2. Types of articles suitable for publication include the following: research reports, conceptual ideas, studies, theory applications.
3. Articles are written in English (British spelling) using academic language along with standard academic writing structure and composition. Manuscripts are typed double-space in a quarto paper size (A4), between 5.000-8.000 words in length including abstract, keywords, references, figures, and tables.
4. Articles should be in form of essay which includes:
 - a. Title (15-20 words);
 - b. Author's name (without any academic degree) with an institution's name;
 - c. Abstract (150-200 words for each) which includes research problems, methods, and results;
 - d. Keywords (3-6 words);
 - e. Introduction (without subsection, 2-3 pages) which includes background, objectives, methods, and literature reviews/theoretical construct (if needed) of the research. The introduction section ends with an emphasis on items to be discussed;
 - f. Discussion (consists of result of the study, written in the form of subheading(s));
 - g. Conclusion (is a brief summary of findings and discussion. It is strongly recommended to avoid mere repetitive statements from the previous sections) and;
 - h. References.
5. Reference list format is based on APA (American Psychological Association) Sixth edition style. The reference list should appear at the end of the article and includes only literature actually cited in the manuscripts. References are ordered alphabetically and chronologically. We strongly recommend authors to use reference tools, such as Mendeley, Zotero, Endnote, etc.

Following are some of the APA-based references format structure:
