

The program is co-funded by European Union.

Call for Papers

2nd International Graduate Seminar on Human Rights and Democracy

Jointly Organised by

Kathmandu School of Law, Purbanchal University, Nepal
&
Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies, Mahidol University, Thailand

12th July 2019

Kathmandu School of Law, Nepal (KSL) and Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies, Mahidol University, Thailand (IHRP) are jointly organising 2nd International Graduate Seminar on Human Rights and Democracy at KSL on 12th July 2019. The seminar will examine current research in the area of human rights, democratisation and peace studies in Asia Pacific region. We invite students undergoing graduate studies to apply for the seminar.

Interested students shall submit abstract in no more than 300 words along with brief biography at kslapma@gmail.com by 15th June 2019.

Instructions for Paper Presentations

1. Submit complete paper by 05th July 2019 at kslapma@gmail.com.
2. Students must prepare for a 15-minute presentation.
3. The presentation format will be panels of five to six papers (15 minutes each) followed by 10 minutes of discussion.
4. Presentations must include research findings.
5. Students will submit final paper of not more than 3,500 words including the suggestions and feedback received within one month of the presentation. The final papers will be considered to be published in Kathmandu School of Law Review (ISSN 2091-2110) which is the double-blind peer reviewed journal published by the Kathmandu School of Law. The seminar's proceedings will also be published online at the website of Kathmandu School of Law.

In case of any queries, please contact Puja Silwal at kslapma@gmail.com.